DESIRED FUTURE LIFESTYLE

Where will the person live?

On her own or with friends in a warm hot city maybe in AZ. She does not want to live in the Bay Area.

What will the person do during the day and where will he/she do it?

She wants to be an actress, but knows that that may be unrealistic. She said that she doesn't want to move to LA because that is "so basic." If not an actress, she will "probably lead a normal ass life" most likely "working two jobs." "I want to go to college. But I don't like school. I am not a school person. I have three more years of high school and then another four years of college. Ugh. I don't know if I can do that. I don't like school. I am only going to college to get a degree. If acting doesn't work out then I have my degree. It is a waste of money. Maybe I will go to school to be a makeup and hair artist."

What will the person do for fun and recreation?

She likes to watch make up YouTube tutorials and Netflix. She also likes dancing.
